ANNUAL REPORT

09/03/2022

The International Women's Day was celebrated at Meghna Institute of Dental Sciences on 8th March, 2022. The chief guest of the programme was Dr. Shoba, Prof of Department of Oral pathology and microbiology.

The inauguration ceremony was carried out with a prayer song and welcome speech was addressed by Dr.Sushma Naag, HOD of Department of Oral pathology to inspire and encourage all the women to keep excelling consistently and to keep moving in life all the time.

Dr.Shoba addressed the gathering on 'Diagnostic tests on cervical cancer'. She emphasized that the word 'cancer' itself caused fear in the people, because of a lack of knowledge and awareness regarding the causes and prevention of cancer. An important message was to undergo periodic health check-up for both men and women, as early diagnosis can help cure the disease. She talked about the greatness of women and about the women rights.

All the women achievers of teaching and non-teaching faculty were honored with an appreciation.
